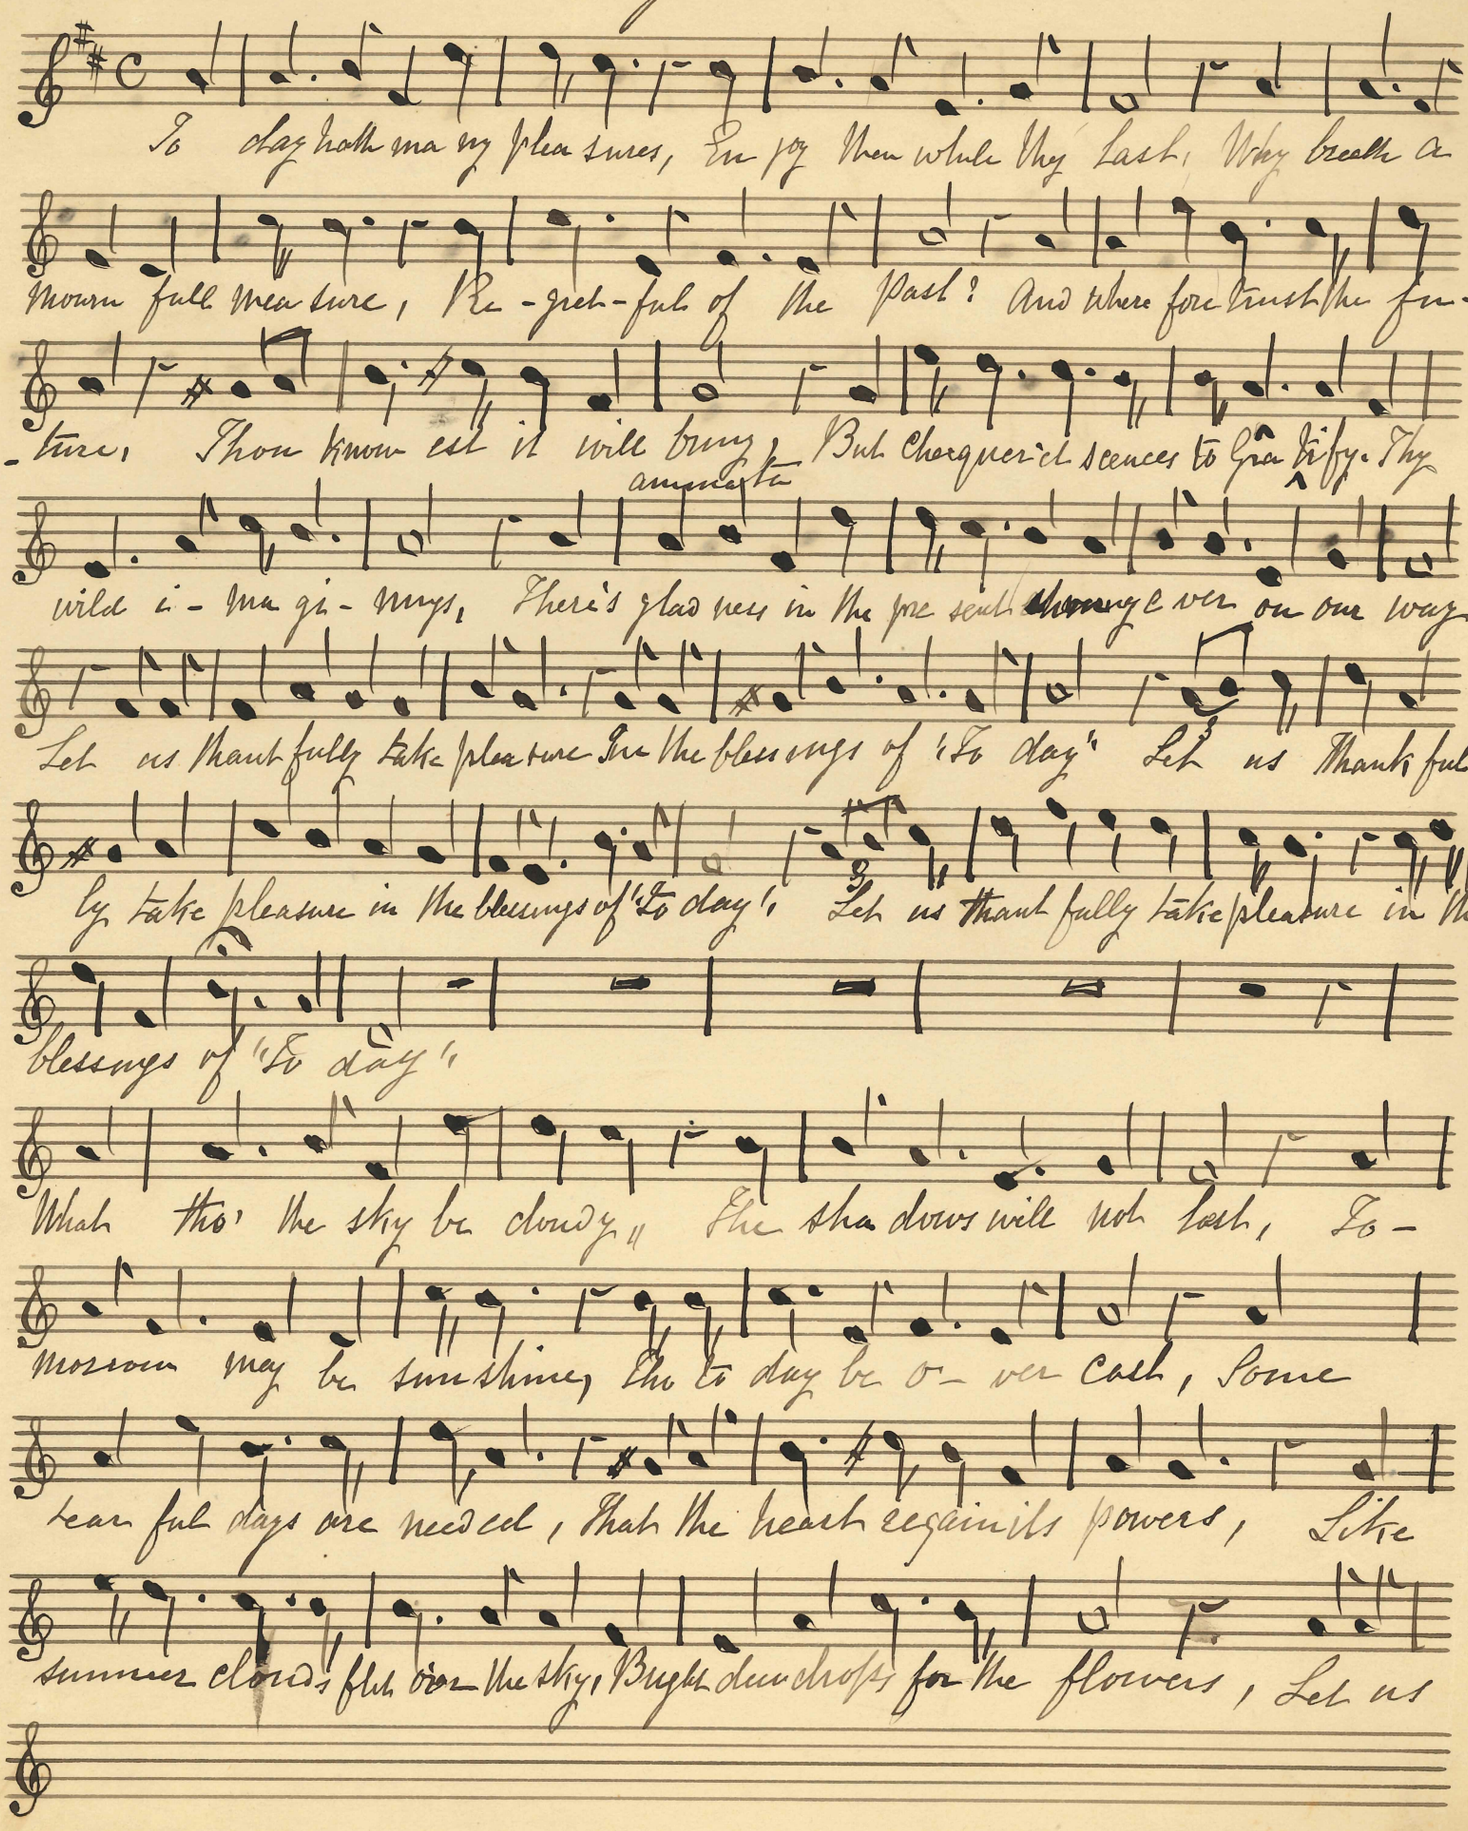
"To day"



To day hath many pleasures, Enjoy them while they Last, Why breath a mourn full measure, Re-gret-ful of the Past? And where fore trust the fu-ture, Thou knowest it will bring, But Chequer'd scences to Gratify. Thy wild i-ma gi-nings, There's gladness in the pre sent change ever on our way-Let us thank fully take pleasure In the blessings of "To day" Let us Thank ful ly take pleasure in the blessings of "To day" Let us thank fully take pleasure in the blessings of "To day" What tho' the sky be cloudy, The shadows will not last, Tomorrow may be sunshiney The to day be o-ver cast, Some tear ful days are needed, That the heart regainits powers, Like summer clouds flit o'er the sky, Bright dew drops for the flowers, Let us

Teach our hearts this lesson, And im prove it as we may, That the fu ture may be happy, In the memory of "To day", That the future may be happy in the memory of "To day" That the future may be happy, In the memory of "To day"